Somerset Libraries supporting people over Christmas and New Year

Pop in and try something new with the 'Library Choice' service at Somerset Libraries today.

The Library Choice Service is where library customers complete a simple form advising staff what kind of books and authors they like to read. Staff will then do their best to pick out a number of books which may suit.

Most libraries are open during the coming weeks, including Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve and staff will be on-hand to give advice and information - or just to say hello!

The public computers are also available for anyone who may be struggling with IT at home, although you may need to pre-book a session so staff have time to ensure everything is properly cleaned in line with requirements to make things 'Covid safe'.
