Staff Update

Today is the last day for Robbie Warren (maternity cover for Bramble), Elle Backhurst (TA, Reception) and Laura Gurman (TA, Reception). We would like to thank them for all their hard work and we wish them well for their future endeavors.

We look forward to welcoming Genevieve Mondahl and Sophie Flower back from Maternity leave after half term.

Wraparound Care

If you require a one-off booking at either Kites (breakfast club) or Trinity Plus (after school club), please call or email the office to book in advance. It is important the staff know to expect your child and due to high numbers of children attending we may not always be able to accept the booking if we are full.

If you require your child to attend wraparound on a regular weekly basis, please email the office with the days, times and start date required and we will confirm if there is a space available. We have waiting lists for the days we are full so that spaces are allocated fairly.

Invoices have been sent this week. A gentle reminder that payments are due by Friday 17th March. If you are paying using tax-free childcare, please email us the reference number so we can make sure the payments are allocated to Trinity. Many thanks for your help.

School Lunch Menus

Don't forget to order meals for w/c 27th February by midnight on Monday 20th February. If you miss the deadline, you will need to provide a packed lunch for your child.

Reporting Absence

A gentle reminder to parents to please phone the school office before 9.30am when your child is absent from school. Please do not send a Dojo message to the teacher, as they may not see it before the start of school.

Please also phone the office subsequently on each day of your child's absence.

The office is open from:

8.00am Monday - Thursday
8.30am Friday

World Book Day Tokens

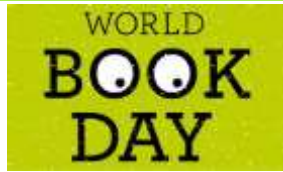

We are really looking forward to taking all the children to spend their World Book Day token at Hunting Raven during the week of World Book Day. We did this last year, and it was a huge success. We are extremely grateful to Tina and her team for enabling this to happen for us, it is such an exciting visit for the children!

Vocabulary Day Friday 3rd March

For World Book Day this year, we would like to hold a 'Vocabulary Day', where everyone is invited to dress up in a way that exemplifies a word of their choice. We held one a few years ago and it was a great day, which created lots of excellent talk about words. Those of you with children here at the time may remember Mr Reid in his wetsuit to display 'aquatic', Mrs Jones wearing tinsel to be 'festive' or Miss Flower in a crown being 'royal'. We hope that this enables families to be as creative as they would like to be, and hopefully does not involve anyone buying a costume especially for the day as we would not like you to incur added costs. We know that some children and parents will relish the challenge, but for those people who find this harder to do, there is always the option of pyjamas for 'sleepy' or tracksuit and trainers for 'sporty'!

The Bible Story this term is The Good Shepherd
This retelling is from 'The Lion Storyteller Bible'

The Good Shepherd

When Jesus walked, everybody seems to follow.
People who thought they were good
And people who weren't so good, too – children and Jews, children and Romans.

The people who thought they were good didn't like the way he "Was Jesus?" they wondered "How can you make these things?" They said. "You call him your Father, he only can give something when he says, 'I am the Father'?"
Jesus thought that is strange. Can he tell you a story? He said:

There were a flock. Some were a shepherd. A shepherd who had a hundred sheep.
The flock went on down the night.
The white sheep and the black sheep.
The spotted ones and the striped ones.
The thin ones and the fat ones.
The dead ones and the healthy ones.
And every night when he had called them down from the hills and gathered them to their pens, he would sometimes say, "One is missing."
They say, "Where?
How, then, do
you know, shepherd?
And all the time he is looking the night, he heard himself a sheep that

It was a dark, rainy night, and he was that he never got to a shepherd, because the best sheep was missing!
The shepherd looked around the pen. "Who's missing?" he said. "The sheep that I gave." And when he was alone, he said:
"Oh, how to find it?" It was a dark, rainy night, and he was that he never got to a shepherd, because the best sheep was missing!
The shepherd looked around the pen. "Who's missing?" he said. "The sheep that I gave." And when he was alone, he said:
"Oh, how to find it?" It was a dark, rainy night, and he was that he never got to a shepherd, because the best sheep was missing!
