HEADS UPDATE from Amanda Seager Today we are celebrating World Book Day with lots of stories and storytelling...as well as being in our pyjamas! We started the day with a whole school assembly, something which doesn't happen all that often but which is always lovely. There are many benefits to having smaller assemblies but I always love seeing all the children together and having the chance to all focus on the same thing. It also meant we could admire each other's pyjamas, onesies, oodles and dressing gowns. We are looking very cosy at school today!

Today's assembly gave me the chance to share one of my favourite books, A Cultivated Wolf. This is the story of a wolf who decides to go to school so that he can learn to read. He makes this decision after he comes across a cow, a pig and a duck all enjoying their reading in the farmyard – and refusing to run away when he tries to attack them. The book works its way through the journey of reading, from those early days of learning sounds right up to being a fluent, expressive reader – or reading with style as the pig encourages the wolf to do. It is a lovely way to explore the journey of becoming a great reader with children, who cannot only recognise where on that journey they are, but also see the benefit and value of persevering.

The children have all loved paying a visit to Hunting Raven over the last week, where they have been able to exchange their World Book Day token for one of the special World Book Day books. As ever, Tina has been wonderful, making sure there were plenty of books for everyone and inspiring and enthusing the children about the books they could choose from. We really are so lucky to have such a wonderful book shop right here in Frome.

Finally, thank you so much for all the wonderful photos of the children reading outside of school. We have loved seeing them, and Mr Reid is in the process of using some of them to make a beautiful display in the library. We love seeing the children become enthusiastic readers and really hope that we are helping to grow a lifelong love of reading in all our Trinity children.

Big Walk and Wheel Challenge

From March 11th to March 22nd we are encouraging families to travel to school as actively as possible as we take part in the Sustrans Big Walk and Wheel Challenge. This might involve the children walking, cycling or scooting all the way to school from home, but it could also mean that you park a little further away from school and walk a little further than usual during those two weeks. We know it isn't possible for everyone to travel all the way to school and back on foot every day, but we really hope all of our families will join in as much as possible.

Fun Walk – Mojo Moves

Cheryl Sprinkler of Mojo Moves will be leading a dance session and walking bus from the bandstand in Victoria Park to Trinity First school on Wednesday 13th March from 8am.

Anyone wishing to join in can come along for a dance and an active journey to school, arriving at Trinity at 8.40am.
