Trinity First School, located in Frome, Somerset, is a fully inclusive, thriving school for children aged four to nine. Known for its strong emphasis on community, the school provides a nurturing environment where young learners can thrive academically and socially. With a dedicated staff and a broad curriculum that encourages creativity and critical thinking, Trinity First School aims to foster a love of learning while developing essential skills. The school also prioritises outdoor learning and engagement with the local community, making it a cornerstone of education in Frome.

We are seeking a dedicated Teaching Assistant (Level 1) to join our team and provide invaluable support to both students and staff.

Trinity First School joined the Midsomer Norton Schools' Partnership in October 2024. The partnership was founded in 2009 following the hard federation of Norton Hill and Somervale Secondary Schools and has since expanded to include several secondary and primary schools across the Southwest of England. The Trust is built on the belief that true collaboration leads to excellence, striving to ensure all its schools achieve a 'good' or better rating. While maintaining the unique character of each school, the Trust supports improvement through sensible standardisation of practices, providing outstanding support and challenge to foster success across its member schools.

Closing date: Midday, Thursday 12th December 2024
