HEADS UPDATE

from Amanda Seager

It is September again and that means a very warm welcome to all our new children and families, and a very warm welcome back to all our returning children and families! It has been so lovely to see everyone again this week, and to see how well and quickly the children are settling back in. The children have all been very smiley and excited whenever I have popped in to see them during the week and those who are in new classes are quickly getting used to the new routines. I am sure there will be plenty of tired children today after a week of being in school...and possibly one or two tired grown-ups too!

I am sure our Year 4 children will be especially tired, as they have had the delights of the residential visit to Hooke Court this week. The visit is three days and two nights and usually the overwhelmingly favourite memory when the children look back on their time at Trinity. During the visit the children take part in a range of different activities, which are pretty much all outside, weather permitting, and include things like den building and a night walk. The children love sharing a room with their friends and have lots of extra downtime with them too. The trip gives the children plenty of opportunities to demonstrate our school values, whether that is resilience at spending the night away from home for the first time, teamwork in the various tasks they take part in, kindness towards others who might be finding it more difficult, respect for each other and the adults around them, both school staff and the centre staff running the various activities or using their curiosity to ensure they make the most of their new surroundings and experiences. I am always grateful to the staff for being willing to give up their time (and the majority of two nights' sleep!) to take the children and ensure they have the very best time.

Please remember I am always available to talk through any concerns you may have. Do feel free to catch me on the gate at the beginning or end of the day or get in touch with the office to arrange an appointment of a phone call.

Please note the change of day from Friday to Wednesday.
