HEADS UPDATE

from Amanda Seager

This week we have been joined by seven Year 10 students from Frome College as they have been completing a week of work experience. We always receive a large number of requests for work experience placements and unfortunately cannot accommodate every request so the students we have had must have impressed Mr Reid with their applications! It has been lovely to welcome them, and especially so as three of the students are former Trinity pupils. We love to see how our former children are doing! The students have been a great help in our classes and the children have loved getting to know them. Hopefully some of our visitors will have been inspired to train to become the next generation of teachers and teaching assistants!

On Monday we were delighted to be joined by several members of the Frome Town Council team who have been helping us to look after our Forest School. This event was planned originally for December but had to be postponed due to some poor weather conditions. Mark and Helen and their team were full of enthusiasm and lots of practical support as they guided several classes in the planting of new trees. We love our Forest School and it has been very well used over the last few years so it was definitely time to show it some love and ensure we will be able to continue using it for many years to come. I am very grateful to both the Frome Town Council team and Mr Reid for making sure everything ran so smoothly on the day.

Finally, thank you to everyone who has come to a Share my Work session this week. It has been great to see the hall so busy and I hope you have found them useful.

Supporting My Child's Emotional Wellbeing Through Creativity Courses

Creativity has long been known to help people explore and express their inner thoughts and feelings. Processing and releasing emotions and working through difficult experiences can become easier by drawing, painting or sculpting those experiences, rather than trying to express them through words.

This course will teach you how to support your child to explore and express their emotions through creativity. With a non-verbal and non-judgemental approach to this process you can learn ways to truly connect with and support your child, without having to try and guess what is going on for them.

There is no right or wrong way of creating or expressing, and your child can explore the activities in any way they choose. This might be completely non-verbally or discreetly in their own dedicated space.

Learning through the experience of doing and creating alongside your child, you will both get to discover what it is like to express emotions through art, sculpture and other forms of creativity.

This course is designed for adults with children who are:

- Anxious
- Dysregulated
- Lonely or isolated
- Finding it difficult to explain how they feel and why
- Missing school

Ideal for children aged 7 to 11 with an appropriate adult caregiver. Children to be supervised by their adult at all times.
